We are also looking for a third facilitator – to work with Charlie Whetham and Ed Kelley

With a growing and intellectually-curious group of children in the church, we would like to be able to pass on to them the huge accumulated wisdom which you each have.

We are exploring a series of mini-seminars for the children during Sunday services. Each time, a different adult member of the congregation would join Sunday Club to share with the kids, aged about 10 to 16, a life-experience, of a wide variety of different sorts.

Following introductions (by children and speaker), we envisage a 20-30 minute informal talk illustrated with videos, pictures or props, and with a Biblical reference (but not a Bible study); followed by an opportunity for questions.

A separate moderator would host, facilitate (and keep the kids in order). Children below about 10 would be separately taught a different programme by a Sunday Club leader.

We would love to hear from all of you willing to speak at a mini-seminar – ALL of you have experiences of value to our children – for example:

- A CERN scientist on how they reconcile the big bang theory and Creation
- A new mother on the impact of motherhood on their faith
- A biologist on how they reconcile evolution with Creation
- A refugee on how they view their experiences in light of their faith
- An aid worker on how they reconcile human suffering with God's love
- An older congregant on how they view their life in light of their faith
- A wealth manager on how they view wealth and their faith
- A congregant with inter-faith experience on how they reconcile God's truth with respect for other religions
- A businessman on how they reconcile ambition with their faith
- A historian on the historical evidence for Jesus' life
