

Our God Who Is Love

An Ignatian Way Day

The Ignatian Way theme for 2025 is: Our God Who Is Love

The remaining sub-themes are:

Day 2: Jesus accompanies me in living suffering, to reveal the mystery of God's love

Day 3: I am raised up with Jesus through my suffering and dying to peace

An Ignatian Way Day offers a chance to 'catch one's spiritual breath' in today's hectic world, a pause to open to silence, with time for personal reflection on one's life in the light of scripture, and group sharing on related questions.

Where? Close to Geneva at The Ecumenical Institute - Chateau de Bossey, 1298 Céligny.

Up-coming Dates (Saturday, 9.00-17.00): June 14 and October 11, 2025

Cost per day: CHF 55 (includes lunch and a mid-morning coffee/tea with croissant).

Registration: Contact Patricia Laurie on vervel10@gmail.com or Tel. +33 6 85 39 15 66.

Background Information: The Ignatian Way Day was initiated by Louis Christiaens S.J. in 1996. Louis (1935–2024) was a Catholic priest of the Society of Jesus, a religious order founded by Saint Ignatius of Loyola, also known as the Jesuits. In 2018 Fr. Louis asked Stephen Claffey to take responsibility for facilitating the Ignatian Way Day, which is held three times a year and is open to people from all walks of life. Stephen, a deeply engaged pilgrim on the holy journey of life since his teens, draws on a good knowledge of Christian spirituality and psychology (PhD). He first met Fr. Louis in 1999 and benefitted from Fr. Louis's guidance over many years. Stephen and close collaborators from diverse churches prepare each retreat day with the desire that all who come may experience God's personal love and inner peace amid a welcoming community.
